

La Romita General Scholarship

The La Romita General Scholarship provides financial assistance to individuals who wish to attend workshops at La Romita School. The General Scholarship is open to any eligible individual wishing to receive instruction at a workshop hosted by La Romita School. Maximum award for any individual is $1000.

To be eligible for the La Romita General Scholarship, applicants must:

- Be a United States citizen or a permanent legal resident.
- Be at least 18 years old.
- Complete the application and submit to scholarships@laromita.org
- Agree to participate in future promotion to be determined prior to accepting the scholarship. This could be the production of a blog during your workshop, or speaking about your experience the following year to a small group of possible attendees.

To complete your application, send this completed form and the materials requested below to scholarships@laromita.org by email or by using the document submission form at <http://www.laromita.org/docsubmit> and pay the $10 application fee via the “Apply” button at <http://www.laromita.org/scholarships>

Please include:

- 1.) The application form, completed, signed, and dated (scans ok).
- 2.) a one-page CV or resumé that summarizes your professional or academic background
- 3.) A statement explaining why you would like the scholarship.
- 4.) 2-3 samples of your work from your portfolio. If you do not yet have a portfolio, write a statement about 2 or 3 works you wish you could create and why.

Applications will be accepted until April 1st for that calendar season – I.E. the cutoff to apply for scholarships to be awarded in 2017 is April 1st 2017.
